Mother's Day Celebration
(Satya Bharti Schools)

Satya Bharti Schools celebrated Mother's Day 2014 to extoll the presence of a caring heart. Mothers of all the students were invited to their respective schools and given tokens of love in the form of hand-made cards and bouquets by their children. Variety of activities and games were organized for them to enjoy and take a break from their monotonous and rigorous house schedules.

The second Sunday of May is celebrated as Mother's Day in India. The celebration not only serves as a scaffold for expressing feelings but also catalyzes love and respect for mother amongst children. The day marks the joyous presence of a mother and finds every individual doing the little best that they can to thank their mother for the abundant best that she does. This is celebrated to say the unspoken ‘Thank You’ to mothers for being what they are.

Elected Student Leadership Council
(Satya Bharti Schools, Sangrur, Punjab)

Based on the concept of Student Leadership, all schools of Sangrur organized student elections and elected a democratic student council. This strengthened not only awareness but also induced the responsibility and importance of vote in the minds of students.

Students filed nominations, prepared their manifestos, executed rallies and most importantly voted for responsible representatives.

This activity helped students to experience the duties of a candidate, voter's rights and encouraged exercising the vote.

Labour Day Celebration
(Satya Bharti Schools, Jyouna & Kurrian Kalan, Uttar Pradesh)

Students of Satya Bharti Schools, Jyouna & Kurrian Kalan celebrated Labour Day to express gratitude towards those who extend a laborious hand to keep the functioning of schools and nearby areas intact. They invited the identified labours to the school, presented them with hand-made cards, flower bouquets and garlands and spent a few happy moments with them.

This celebration, intended to inculcate the feeling of equality, also made students realize the value of work that often goes unnoticed.

Summer Camp - Fun & Learn
(Satya Bharti Schools, Jodhpur, Rajasthan)

A Summer Camp was organized to help students learn through the play-way method. The five-day-long camp welcomed 275 students from schools across Lordi Deegara, Sopara and Joliyali. During the camp, students were exposed to activities like Art & Craft, Mehendi Making, Yoga, Jewelry Making, Music etc. which helped them learn and recreate simultaneously.

The Summer Camp helped students learn and make friends through group activities. They were encouraged to demonstrate the newly attained skill or knowledge gained in the camp. The activity was highly appreciated by the parents and the local community.

House Activity
Satya Bharti School, Bhojpur, Shahjaharapur, Uttar Pradesh

Building on the concept of holistic development of students, one-day training on ‘Beauty Parlour’ operations was conducted for the girl students of the school. They were taught various activities like facial, threading, hair styles etc. thereby encouraging innovative learning.

The activity establishes the fact that Satya Bharti Schools provide its students with a chance to hone their skills, and offer them platforms to pursue hidden interests while ensuring optimum utilization of summer vacation.
