NYAYA BHARTI

• To provide aid to the underprivileged undertrials who are first time offenders accused of petty offences and require financial and legal assistance to apply for bail and release.

• Extends assistance to poor convicts undergoing imprisonment for petty offences due to their inability to pay petty fine imposed by the courts.

• Nyaya Bharti's Governing Board is headed by Justice A.S. Anand (Retired Chief Justice of India).

• Aims at providing legal assistance and creating awareness about the undertrials' legal rights while complementing the legal aid work being undertaken by National Legal Services Authority (NALSA) and State Legal Services Authorities (SLSAs) set up under statute legislated by the Parliament.

• 58 bail orders have been obtained and the release of 56 underprivileged undertrials has been affected.
